(c) if so, the number of meetings called by Government to implement the "Uniform Sales-tax" scheme in all States immediately; and

(d) the success achieved as a result thereof and whether these have been helpful in avoiding confrontation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN): (a) to (d) Sir, in the conference of Chief Ministers held on 16.11.1999, all the States and Union Territories took a consensus decision to implement uniform floor rates of sales-tax as recommended by a committee of State Finance Ministers. The States and Union Territories have, by and large, implemented these floor rates of sales-tax. An Empowered/ Standing Committee of State Finance Ministers monitors the implementation of this decision for which it has so far met fourteen times. Adoption of uniform floor rates of sales-tax has helped in avoiding 'tax war' amongst States/Union Territories and has resulted in increased revenue.
